FRESNO CHAFFEE ZOO CELEBRATES THE WINTER SEASON WITH ZOOLIGHTS

Fresno, CA – Fresno Chaffee Zoo celebrates the winter season with their annual ZooLights event starting Friday, November 26 and continuing select nights through December 30.

This annual family-friendly evening event transforms the Zoo into a winter wonderland as guests walk through the Zoo’s spectacular displays full of miles of holiday lights. The event also features live entertainment, festive treats for purchase, and free photos with Santa. Hot beverages for adults and children will be available for purchase, including spiked hot chocolate and a re-usable holiday cup that includes free refills. Complimentary holographic glasses are included in the admission price while supplies last. ZooLights takes place on November 26–28, December 3–5, 10–12, 17–23 and 26–30 after-hours at the Zoo from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

“We are excited to welcome guests to our celebration of the winter season and the holidays,” said Marketing Manager Brandy Gamoning. “We have added some new elements to the event that are sure to delight guests as they celebrate this festive time of year.”

The Zoo’s website has a full schedule of live entertainment, special offers and theme nights. Special programs for this year’s event include performances by Killer Dueling Pianos, a Toys for Tots drive, fantastical stilt walkers, and more.
