WHO: Fresno Chaffee Zoo

WHAT: Join Fresno Chaffee Zoo for a fall celebration like no other! At the Fall Enrichment Festival, guests can see their favorite animals engage with autumn-themed treats and activities. A variety of species including elephants, stingrays, sloth bears, raccoons, tigers, and more will receive festive enrichment that evokes natural behaviors such as hunting and foraging. This family-friendly event offers a fun way to learn how enrichment keeps animals active and engaged, while celebrating the beauty of fall throughout the Zoo. See the full schedule below or on the Zoo's website at fcz.org.

WHEN: The festival will take place from 9:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. on Saturday, October 31st. Media may attend for interviews with Fresno Chaffee Zoo staff from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M. Please coordinate with Gia Krupens at gkrupens@fcz.org or 559-577-3757 if you plan to attend.
